

Download Primary Care Of Women A Guide For Midwives And Womens Health Providers

Premier Physician Network has more than 125 locations in southwest Ohio. Find a primary care or specialty provider from our more than 600 physicians and advanced practice providers. Premier Physician Network puts patients first. The more than 600 physicians and advanced practice providers of Premier Physician Network are conveniently located throughout Southwest Ohio. Specialties include Primary Care, Orthopedics, Cardiology, OB/Gyn, General Surgery, and more. MultiCare Women's Center-Tacoma located in the MultiCare on Division building provides women convenient access and options to leading OB/GYN care. Robust evidence highlights improved clinical outcomes for women accessing continuity of midwifery care. Most women are satisfied with the care they receive, however we know little about the components of this "package" that may contribute to what it is that women value in such a model.